I am directed to invite your attention to the Government letter cited wherein you have been requested to upload your Immovable Property Returns (IPR) online within the time limit (i.e. 31st January, 2019) as per Rule 16 (2) of the AIS (Conduct) Rules 1968. However, some IAS officers have not uploaded their Immovable Property Returns (IPR) so far.

2. As per the instructions dated:04.04.2011 of DOPT, failure to ensure timely submission of IPR constitutes good and sufficient reason for institution of disciplinary proceedings.

3. In view of the above, I am directed to request you to upload the Immovable Property Returns online within the stipulated time limit (i.e. 31st January 2019) after which no IPR would be accepted.

Yours faithfully,

P. Senthilkumar

for Principal Secretary to Government (FAC)
